Statement from Presiding Bishop Michael Curry on Deadly Unrest in Colombia

May 14, 2021

We speak in solidarity with our brothers, sisters, and siblings in Colombia, and of the Episcopal Anglican Church in Colombia.

Jesus once said of his ministry, quoting the prophet Isaiah: "The spirit of the Lord is upon me because he has anointed me to preach good news to the poor; he has sent me to proclaim release to the captives and recovery of sight to the blind, to set at liberty all who are oppressed and to proclaim the acceptable Year of the Lord."

We who follow the way of Jesus — we who seek to be the Jesus Movement in our time — stand in solidarity with those who are protesting peacefully and who work and labor faithfully for justice and humane solutions to our problems.

Bishop Duque of Colombia said this: "Being baptized moves us in a prophetic spirit according to the teachings of Jesus the Christ, to put ourselves on the side of the oppressed and violated, to demand the peace and justice necessary for a dignified and harmonious life"

We pray and ask that all people of goodwill join hands and work together for the realization of peace, the establishment of justice and the way of reconciliation of love and life for all the people of Colombia. We stand with you in your struggle and pray God's blessing and guidance on you and on the entire human family. Amen.

The Most Rev. Michael B. Curry
Presiding Bishop and Primate
The Episcopal Church

Statement from Bishop Klusmeyer

The Diocese of Colombia continues to be our Companion Diocese, so please pray! Bishop Duque and his family are good friends and need our prayers.
